FORM #: _____

DECLARATION-OF-INTEREST CITY OF LAS VEGAS PAWNBROKER LICENSE

I, _____, am submitting a $200 non-refundable filing fee along with this declaration-of-interest for the currently available pawnbroker license. I understand and acknowledge that as a declarant, I must submit a separate fee with each declaration-of-interest form submitted. The information required by the Director for the proper administration of the procedure to select a pawnbroker license applicant as set forth in LVMC 6.60 is as follows:
(Print Declarant Name)

1. Name of applicant: _____
2. Address of applicant: _____
3. Telephone number(s): _____

I understand that a person who becomes an eligible applicant to apply for the pawnbroker license, must within six months of his selection or notification, apply for the license and complete the licensing process, which includes without limitation:

1. Paying to the City an initial original fee of $60,000.00;
2. Fulfilling all business licensing requirements of this Code;
3. Meeting all zoning requirements applicable to his prospective business location;
4. Being found suitable for a pawnbroker license, taking into account specifically, without limitation, the applicant's present and past financial position and history, as contemplated under Chapter 6.06; and
5. Being approved for licensing by the City Council.

If an applicant does not complete the licensing process within six months, his application will automatically expire and the Director shall notify the next person on the lottery list, in the rank of priority of eligibility, to begin the licensing process OR if an applicant completes the licensing process but is denied a license, the Director shall notify the next person on the lottery list, in the rank of priority of eligibility, to begin the licensing process OR if an applicant does not complete the licensing process or is denied a license, the Director shall return the initial origination fee.
